Last Week: A Look at the 2020 District Conference

Presented by Scott Healy, Karen Quartaro, DGE Dave Hannan and Russ Harris

Through a very clever presentation, we learned that the 2020 conference in Niagara Falls, NY has the luck of being held in the wedding capital of the U.S.

Ladies bring your wedding veils and dresses (that still fit!) for Saturday night's dinner. There are of course many entertaining things to do including a ride on the Maid of the Mist - rain gear will be provided! Make your reservations early!

Welcome Back!

DGE Dave Hannan is back from the International convention in Hamburg Germany. Approximately 40,000 members were in attendance. Dave recommends this great experience for meeting new people - Rotarians from around the world, sharing ideas from their clubs. Sign up early to go to Honolulu next year!

Fine Persons

President Linda honored the Family Promise Sunday Bed Transporters and the Mobile Pantry workers who distributed food to 141 families.

Thank You From Sudan

President Linda read a letter from the Wau Club in South Sudan. They appreciated our support and check of $3,700. This money contributed toward a scholarship for R.A. Tong who is studying Nursing.

Laurel House

In our ongoing endeavor to support the Laurel House the annual 5K race was held. This year's net fundraiser was $14,500. Laurel House is a viable asset to our community with the help of many Rotarians as well as other community volunteers. There are many ways of helping - talk to Pat Albrecht about how your talents can be used.

Grand Finale

Thursday the 27th is the last meeting in this Rotary year. We will honor and say goodbye to our Exchange students, Elliot from Sweden and Eliana from Italy. On June 20th, bring your Rotary Bucks to spend at the wild and crazy Auction with Auctioneer Bob Bendix.

Thank You to our Sponsors
