Last Week: Open Meeting

Last week we had an open meeting. Elliot Dahl, our exchange student from Sweden, made a request to help him fill his Piggy Bank. All exchange students attending the district conference are planning to surprise the District Governor with a donation to the Rotary Foundation. President Linda read a letter from Grace, who described being seriously pranked on April Fools, her trip to London and the visit by Holly and Marc. She made sure that Holly was crying by the end of the letter! Youth Service Committee chair Russ Harris made a plea for host families for the upcoming Rotary year. Jan Hence passed around the Hill Cumorah sign-up sheets. Holly updated the club on membership. Michele McManus announced that all members who have signed up to attend the dinner on June 1st will be receiving a phone call. We will be asking you to bring an appetizer or a dessert. Wine is always welcome but not a specific assignment. LET'S PARTY!

Fine Persons

Thank you to all the rotarians that worked on Sunday's Chicken BBQ. Frank All, Bob Bendix. Stu Blodgett, Sandy and Jim DeVolder, Jan Hence, Kevin Mooney, JoAnne Speight, Mark Thoms, Karen Vanderbrook, Coke Veith, Jim Weiler, John Zornow. Not only did these folks work on a very cold spring day but they unfortunately had to turn away many community walk ins. The bottom line is that we did not order enough meals. These "fine people" handled the situation in a gracious and apologetic way. Going forward we hope to prevent and learn from our mistakes.
