President's Announcements

President Holly put on wedding veil and played "Going to the Chapel" to introduce DG Hannan to talk about conference.

February Birthdays and Anniversary's were shared. Clay Depew led us in song. Exempt Button went to Karen Quataro Holly asked Rotary Spelling Bee Contestants to stand up. They broke into their two teams. Holly gave them a word to spell:

"pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis" The team of Melissa, Karen Q and Grace Norcott beat the team of Ryan Silver and Jean Bendix. They are were winners and received a gift certificate to Mr. Cooleys in honor of National Frozen Yogurt Day.

Bowling Awards - We had a great time at our Fifth Thursday Social Event at Doug Kent's Rose Bowl Lanes. So many came out to socialize and many bowled. Many also stayed to cheer the bowlers on. The following awards were given out. Each received a mini bowling ball game.

WELLNESS REPORT

Helmuth and Hannelora are continuing to improve. Hannelora is home now. Gail Chambers had shoulder surgery and is recovering.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Club Service - Recently approved 2 new grants. Foundation - hoping to get 100% participation. If you donate you get a thank you note handed out by Fred. Membership - 4 new inductees next week.
Sergeant at Arms - Thank you to cashiers and greeters. Everything is going well.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Scott Healy - The Rotarians name that is drawn gets $50 off their registration fee for District Conference. If they are not going it is transferable.

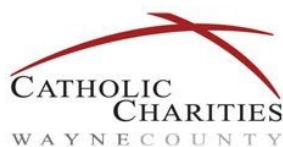

HAPPY MOMENTS

Jean Bendix - Aubrey has her new movie coming out on Netflix next week.
Holly Kreuser - Went to Ryan's last swim meet at Oswego. Only a few tears were shed Art Williams - Marsha finally finished her red badge list. Art had lost it and finally turned one in for her. It is his fault it took her so long.

Thank You to Our Sponsors!
