

May 30, 2019 Club #4798 District 7120 Bulletin Editor: Trudy Hicks P.O. Box 374, Newark, NY 14513

Last Week: Ryan Mulhern

Ryan spoke to us today about the responsibilities of the public health department in Wayne County. Under the topics of Prevent, Promote and Protect, the department offers Public Health Services, Education Programs and Children with Special Needs Programs. Public health works with schools and businesses. The most critical area of assistance is in preventing Chronic diseases. The office hours are from 8-4:30 Monday through Friday. The cost of services is covered by most insurance carriers or a sliding fee scale is available. Services are not denied due to inability to pay.

Announcements

RYLA

Holly Kreuser asked for our support in sending 2 attendees to the annual youth leadership training session. Passing the basket, we raised $430 toward the $500 which is required per student. Thanks for your generosity !

CHANGE OVER DINNER

DGE Dave Hannan encouraged us to make reservations for this year's change over dinner to be held on June 28th. We are looking for a large group from Newark in support of Dave's upcoming year as District Governor. The dinner will be held at the RIT Inn & Conference Center in Henrietta, NY. If that seems like a bit of a drive you might plan to stay over.

MEMBERSHIP

The membership committee is looking at two new prospective members - Ann Rogers, retired Newark Elementary school teacher and Brian Manktelow, NY assemblyman replacing Bob Oaks. Holly is also working on the mentoring program where sponsors continue to guide new members in their Rotary participation and responsibilities .

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

We are very proud of Newark Rotarian, Pat Albrecht, who was honored for her volunteer work at a ceremony in Albany. Presenting the award was NY Assemblyman Brian Manktelow. The Laurel House project is just one of Pat's many endeavors. She is a constant source of inspiration to all Rotarians.
