President's Announcements

Thursday was National Handwriting Day. Holly shared a story about receiving letters from her parents as she was growing up. They meant a lot to her and had a lasting impression. Handwriting has become a lost art because of our phones and computers. She distributed note cards on each table and encouraged us to take a card home and write a letter to someone special.

It was also National Pie Day. Winners of the Pie trivia were Linda Werts and Michele McManus.

Club Announcements

Jeanne and Paul Salisbury were guests of Tim Johnson. They are long time residents of Newark and have been married for 55 years. They are very active members of our community and had received the Paul Harris recognition for their contributions. We hope to accept them as new members in the near future. They are sponsored by Frank All.

Dave Hannan recognized Adam Olschewski with a Paul Harris +1. Dave thought is was clever of Fred (Foundation Chair) to send out Thank-you notes in advance for members contributions. Fred is hoping for 100% participation this year. (continued on next page)

Donna Johnson reminded us that we could register on line for the District Training. We have 8 members so far. Jan Henc is still looking for auction items for the Pancake Breakfast, Saturday March 21st. Money can be used to purchase some items. Still needs 18 bottles of wine. Gary's fundraising committee met following the lunch meeting. Alicia Vazquez reminded us that for $10 you can have your name in the Spelling Bee bulletin. Scott Healy is working with his committee planning for this year's District Conference to be held in Niagara Falls the first week-end in May.

WELLNESS REPORT

Hannelora is feeling better after being in the hospital with the flu. Helmuth is also improving every day. Pat Albrecht asked for prayers for Sean O'Toole following his kidney surgery. She reminded us - FIFTY SIX DAYS TIL SPRING!!

HAPPY MOMENTS

Chrissie Kent was proud to announce that she attended a Rotary Club in Charleston on her vacation. Scott Healy was happy to pay a fine and brag about the Syracuse Orange beating Marc Kreuser's Virginia Tech Hokies. Ann Rogers was pleased to announce that the Red Kettle project brought in $11,073.63. We thank Ann for her work on this great fundraiser.

SPEAKER - LINDA PRINCE - NIGHT TO SHINE

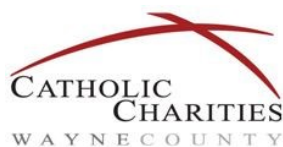

Ann Morrell, from the Pal Mac Rotary, introduced Linda Prince, wife of the Pastor at the Cross Creek Church. These two women were doing what they called their Thank You Tour. Our club had supported their project - NIGHT TO SHINE. Cross Creek is very involved with "special needs" programs. Linda and her husband have a son Jake who is 28. He is her inspiration for these projects. Night to Shine is sponsored by the Tim Tebow foundation. The event is a prom-like experience for individuals with intellectual and/or physical special needs. The event includes photo booths, karaoke, hair, nail and make-up stations, catered food, limo rides and dancing. Linda and Kurt Werts attended the prom last year.

They are again hoping we will support their event and send two more visitors from our club.

Thank You to Our Sponsors!
