

March 7, 2019 Club #4798 District 7120

Bulletin Editor: Trudy Hicks

P.O. Box 374, Newark, NY 14513

Last Week: Marge Perez

Marge Perez was appointed the Wayne County Historian in 1972. She has written 2 books - "Final Stop, Freedom - the underground Railroad experience" and "Freedom - a shared sacrifice". One of her main goals as County Historian was to expand the knowledge about Wayne County history and to share the information with students, researchers and the public at large. The African American soldiers from Wayne County who served in the Civil War became the focus of her research during the final years as County Historian.

News from Mexico

Donna Johnson presided over our Rotary meeting while President Linda was in Mexico. Linda wrote that the Rotarians in Valladolid visited two primary schools where the two water fountains will be installed in April.

Fine People

Members of the Community Service Committee - you are the heartbeat of Newark Rotary.

Wellness

Carol Nary is now in Florida. She appreciated the cards we sent when she was undergoing her medical procedures. Marge Gile is in the Wayne Co Nursing home for rehab.

International Night

President Linda has been planning awhile for this event. In lieu of our lunch meeting, with food from different countries, we will have an evening dinner to be held at the Library on Thursday, March 28th.

Proposed New Members

Fred Barker is being sponsored by Frank Russell. He is the Commander at the American Legion in Newark, NY. Mark Thoms is being sponsored by Stu Blodgett. Mark is the Chief of Police in Newark.

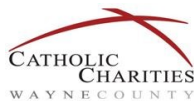

Save the Date

On March 21st we will hold a meeting to brainstorm ideas for fundraisers to replace Hill Cumorah.
